Benediction and Sending (HWB 762)

ALL: Come, Holy Spirit.
Left: Come as Holy Fire and burn in us.
Right: Come as Holy Wind and cleanse us within.
Left: Come as Holy Light and lead us in our darkness.
Right: Come as Holy Truth and dispel our ignorance.
Left: Come as Holy Power and overcome our weakness.
Right: Come as Holy Life and dwell in us.
ALL: Send us, abide with us, use us, that the Father may be glorified, and our joy be made full. AMEN

Conclusion: What are we to think of the Anabaptist understanding of the Christian faith? What can we learn from it? 100 years ago, Professor Rufus M. Jones claimed that "the great principles of freedom of conscience, separation of church and state, and voluntarism in religion, which are so essential to democracy, are derived from the Anabaptist movement of the Reformation period. These courageous leaders clearly enunciated these principles and challenged the Christian world to follow them in practice."*

Do the following statements summarize your understandings of the Christian faith? If they do, you are a Christian from an Anabaptist perspective!

Jesus is the center of my faith.

- I fix my eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of my faith.
- I interpret the Scriptures from an ethical Christocentric point of view.
- I see Christianity as discipleship and seek to follow Jesus in daily life.

Community is the center of my life.

- I believe forgiveness makes community possible.
- I study the Scriptures with others to discern their applications for our time.
- I affirm that face-to-face groups are essential to a healthy church.

Reconciliation is the center of my work.

- I am called to help reconcile people to God through faith in Jesus.
- I believe that reconciliation includes both evangelism and peacemaking.
- I reject all forms of injustice and violence, and encourage peaceful alternatives to war and other conflicts.

Prayer and Praise Requests

- ❖ “Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble, and he brought them out of their distress. He stilled the storm to a whisper; the waves of the sea were hushed. They were glad when it grew calm, and he guided them to their desired haven.” ~Psalm 107:28-30
- ❖ Mennonite Mission Network’s workers in Asia and the Middle East recently completed a five-day retreat in Thailand. Pray that the refreshing times of worship, fellowship and encouragement will help them return to their ministries renewed.
- ❖ Our continued prayers for the health and healing of those who are not well. Grant them strength and healing, comfort them in their pain, and guide the hands of those who are caring for them. May they feel the presence of our Lord and be assured that they are never alone in their struggles. We trust in God’s unfailing love and mercy.
- ❖ Contact the church elders or the church office to update a prayer concern or praise for the bulletin or to activate the email prayer chain during the week.
